Shareholder Rights Directive II—Pershing Securities International Limited Pricing Disclosure

Introduction

This schedule sets out the standard fees that are charged for the services provided by Pershing Securities International Limited as required by the Shareholder Rights Directive II (SRD II) (EU 2017/828), Article 3D.

The schedule applies to Pershing Securities International Limited when we act in the capacity of an ‘Intermediary’ under the Directive, and relates to corporate action and proxy voting services.

Pershing provides the full range of services covered by Chapter 1A of SRD II, inclusive of identification of shareholders, the transmission of information and the exercise of rights.

As standard practice the costs for the provision of many of these services are included within our safekeeping fees, so that in some cases there is no additional fee.

Charges for specific services relating to SRD II can be found below:

- a) Shareholder Identification—Requests to disclose shareholder information do not incur any additional fees
- b) Transmission of information
 - a) Corporate Events—See below notification charges
 - b) Shareholder Meetings—See below notification charges
- c) Exercise of rights
 - a) Corporate Events—Should a corporate event require a security movement see below Corporate Action transaction fees
