THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK GOVERN.

AA. Prime Brokerage. Pershing Advisor Solutions allows your Investment Advisor(s) to place orders for the execution of trades with broker-dealers other than Pershing Advisor Solutions. You acknowledge that you or your Investment Advisor(s) are responsible for selecting these other brokers, and that Pershing Advisor Solutions makes no representation regarding their financial condition or ability. Pershing Advisor Solutions may reject any executing broker proposed by you or your Investment Advisor(s) or terminate any previously accepted executing broker for any reason at any time. If Pershing Advisor Solutions does so, it will inform you or your Investment Advisor(s) in a timely manner.

You authorize Pershing Advisor Solutions to collect and transmit prime brokerage trade orders and other instructions from you or your Investment Advisor(s) on an ongoing basis, and you agree to allow Pershing Advisor Solutions to access reports, data, and services. You authorize Pershing Advisor Solutions to advise the executing brokers if Your Account(s) is not in compliance with any net equity requirement for prime brokerage currently in effect at Pershing Advisor Solutions, to send a notice of disaffirmance of any executing broker's trade to that broker, and to transmit your name to each executing broker as an underlying client of your Investment Advisor(s).

Commissions and/or fees may apply to the execution of transactions through other broker-dealers that you would not incur if the transaction were executed directly through Pershing Advisor Solutions, including additional fees charged by Pershing Advisor Solutions. You agree that Your Account(s) may be assessed a prime brokerage fee if your Investment Advisor(s) trades away from Pershing Advisor Solutions; you and your Investment Advisor(s) will determine responsibility for these fees.

Pershing Advisor Solutions shall be entitled to debit assets from Your Account(s) on the settlement date of any trade-away order regardless of whether delivery or receipt has occurred, or to take appropriate steps to complete, cancel, or liquidate any transaction. If your Investment Advisor(s) elects to transact business with other broker-dealers, Pershing Advisor Solutions will make available, on request and at no additional charge, any confirmation sent by an executing broker-dealer to you in care of Pershing Advisor Solutions.

You understand that prime brokerage activity shall be conducted consistent with all Applicable Laws, rules and regulations, as well as with the SEC prime brokerage no-action letter dated January 24, 1994.

BB. Special Note for Non-U.S. Accounts. With respect to assets custodied by Pershing on your behalf, you acknowledge that income, capital gains or distributions from this account may be taxable in your home jurisdiction. You acknowledge to Pershing Advisor Solutions and to Pershing that you are responsible for obtaining your own tax advice.

CC. Trading Authorization. Your Investment Advisor(s) is authorized to buy and sell (including short sales) equities, bonds, option contracts, and any other related securities, including selecting a money fund or bank deposit product as a sweep option in Your Account, and/or contracts, on margin or otherwise, in accordance with this Agreement and the policies of Pershing Advisor Solutions. For all purchases and sales, Pershing Advisor Solutions is authorized to follow all your Investment Advisor(s)' instructions. Except as herein otherwise provided, the Investment Advisor(s) is authorized to act for Pershing Advisor Solutions in the same manner and with the same force and effect as you might or could do with respect to such purchases and sales, as well as with respect to all other things necessary or incidental thereto including the changing of your sweep instruction, which may include changes between money market funds and bank deposit products, voting of proxies or effectuating tenders, exchanges, or redemptions, or other similar actions (or acting on corporate mailings) with respect to securities held in Your Account, except as previously provided to the Investment Advisor(s). However, the Investment Advisor(s) will not be obligated to take action or render any advice involving legal action, on behalf of Pershing Advisor Solutions, with respect to Securities, Commodities and other Property held in Your Account, or the issuers thereof, which become the subject of legal notices or proceedings, including bankruptcies.

You also authorize the Investment Advisor(s) in its discretion to aggregate purchases and sales of securities for Your Account with those of the same issuer for other clients occurring on the same day. When transactions are aggregated in this way, all participating clients of your Investment Advisor(s) will be deemed to have purchased or sold their proportionate shares at the average transaction price.

If this Agreement is entered into by a trustee or other fiduciary, including someone meeting the definition of fiduciary under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”) or an employee benefit plan subject to ERISA, the fiduciary warrants that the execution of this Trading Authorization is permitted by the plan’s relevant governing instrument, and that the fiduciary is duly authorized to enter into this Agreement. The fiduciary agrees to furnish relevant plan documents to Pershing Advisor Solutions or the Investment Advisor(s) on request. The fiduciary agrees to advise them of any event that might affect this authority or the validity of this Agreement. The fiduciary also warrants (i) that your governing instruments provide that an “investment manager” (as defined in ERISA) may be appointed, and (ii) that the person executing and delivering this Agreement is a “named fiduciary” (as defined in ERISA) who has the power under the plan to appoint an investment manager. The Investment Advisor(s) is that investment manager.

DD. Tax Reporting. (a) Advisor hereby authorizes Pershing Advisor Solutions to employ any procedures for tax reporting, withholding and depositing purposes applicable to Your taxable (nonretirement and noneducation savings) Accounts and Your retirement and education savings Accounts permitted under Applicable Laws to achieve compliance with U.S. federal, U.S. state, and local tax law, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico tax law and the provisions of income tax treaties or conventions between the U.S. and any foreign country (excluding any intergovernmental agreement between the U.S. and any foreign country (“IGA”), as that term is defined in Chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended, or local jurisdictional law, rules or regulations promulgated pursuant to any IGA).

IV. Agreement for Margin Accounts

Margin Disclosure Statement. Before entering any trades in a margin account, it is important that you carefully review this Margin Account Agreement provided by Pershing Advisor Solutions via its arrangement with Pershing LLC and to consult with your Investment Advisor(s) regarding any questions or concerns you may have. It is important to fully understand the risks involved in trading securities on margin. These risks include but are not limited to the following:

You can lose more funds or securities than you deposit in the margin account.

A decline in value of securities that are purchased on margin may require you to provide additional funds to Pershing to avoid the forced sale of those securities or other securities or assets in Your Account(s).

Pershing can force the sale of securities or other assets in Your Account(s).

If the equity in Your Account falls below Pershing’s maintenance margin requirements, Pershing can sell the securities or other assets in any of Your Account(s) held at Pershing to cover the margin deficiency. You also will be responsible for any shortfall in the account after such a sale.

Pershing can sell your securities or other assets without contacting you.

Some investors mistakenly believe that a financial organization must contact them for a margin call to be valid, and that the financial organization cannot liquidate securities or other assets in their accounts to meet the call unless the financial organization has contacted them first. This is not the case. Most financial organizations will attempt to notify their clients of margin calls, but they are not required to do so. However, even if a financial organization has contacted a client and provided a specific date by which the client can meet a margin call, the financial organization can still take necessary steps to protect its financial interests, including immediately selling the securities without notice to the client.

Pershing may change margin requirements or margin call time periods without notice to you.

In regard to house, maintenance and other margin calls, in lieu of immediate liquidations, Pershing may permit you a period of time to satisfy a call. This time period shall not in any way waive or diminish Pershing’s right, in its sole discretion, to shorten the time period in which you may satisfy a call, including one already outstanding, or to demand that a call be satisfied immediately. Nor does such practice waive or diminish the right of Pershing to sell out positions to satisfy the call, which can be as high as the full indebtedness owed by you. Margin requirements may be established and changed by Pershing in its sole discretion and judgment.

You are not entitled to choose which securities or other assets in Your brokerage Account(s) are liquidated or sold to meet a margin call.

Because the securities are collateral for the margin loan, Pershing has the right to decide which security to sell in order to protect its interests. Pershing can increase its “house” maintenance margin requirements at any time, and is not required to provide you with advance written notice. These changes in firm policy often take effect immediately and may result in the issuance of a maintenance margin call. Your failure to satisfy the call may cause Pershing to liquidate or sell securities in Your brokerage Account(s).

You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call.

While an extension of time to meet margin requirements may be available to clients under certain conditions, a client does not have a right to the extension. This Margin Agreement is a legally binding agreement, cannot be modified by conduct and no failure on the part of Pershing at any time to enforce its rights under the Margin Agreement to the greatest extent permitted shall in any way be deemed to waive, modify or relax any of the rights granted Pershing, including those rights vested in Pershing to deal with collateral on all loans advanced to you.

Also, this Margin Agreement constitutes the full and entire understanding between the parties with respect to the provision of the Margin Agreement, and there are no oral or other agreements in conflict with the Margin Agreement unless you have advised in writing to Pershing of such conflict. Any future modification, amendment or supplement to this Margin Agreement or any individual provision of this Margin Agreement can only be in writing signed by a representative of Pershing. You should carefully review this Margin Agreement for the rights and limitations governing Your margin Account relationship.

When you purchase securities, commodities and other property, you have the option of paying for them in full or borrowing part of the purchase price from Pershing. If you choose to borrow funds from Pershing, you will need to open a margin account with Pershing Advisor Solutions, which will introduce such account to Pershing. The securities purchased are used as collateral for the loan that was made to you for that purchase or any other indebtedness arising after the initial transaction. If the securities, commodities and other property in Your Account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting your loan. As a result, Pershing can take action. For example, Pershing can issue a margin call and/or liquidate securities, commodities and other properties in any of Your Account(s) held with Pershing in order to maintain its required equity in the margin account.

If Article 15 of the EU Securities Financing Transactions Regulation is applicable to you: Please refer to https://www.pershing.com/_global-assets/pdf/disclosures/per-eu-article-15-info-stmt.pdf for access to an information statement disclosing the risks and consequences of delivering non-cash collateral under a relevant collateral arrangement with Pershing LLC (including a margin account). This statement does not amend or supersede the express terms of any transaction, collateral arrangement or otherwise affect your or our liabilities or obligations. Please contact your financial professional if you have any questions.

SPECIAL NOTE FOR NON-U.S. ACCOUNTS: With respect to assets custodied by Pershing on your behalf, you acknowledge that income and capital gains or distributions to you from this account may be taxable in your home jurisdiction. Furthermore, interest paid to Pershing Advisor Solutions and Pershing under this Agreement may be subject to withholding tax in your home jurisdiction. It is your obligation to pay such withholding tax, if applicable. You acknowledge to Pershing Advisor Solutions and to Pershing that you have taken your own tax advice in this regard.

THE MARGIN AGREEMENT CONTAINS A PREDISPUTE ARBITRATION CLAUSE.

V. Additional Provisions for Margin Accounts

A. Liquidation. Whenever it is necessary for the protection of Pershing Advisor Solutions to satisfy a margin call, deficiency, debit, or other obligation owed to Pershing Advisor Solutions by Your Account(s), Pershing Advisor Solutions may sell any or all securities, commodities, and other property in Your Account(s) with Pershing Advisor Solutions. Pershing Advisor Solutions is entitled to exercise the rights described in this section in its sole discretion, including whenever the following occurs: in the event that a petition or bankruptcy is filed, the appointment of a receiver is filed against you, an attachment is levied against you, or you die, or become incapacitated.

B. Margin Requirements, Credit Charges, Credit Investigation, and Deposits. For margin purposes, you must, at all times, maintain such securities, commodities, and other property in Your Account(s) as Pershing Advisor Solutions shall require via a margin call or other request. The debit balances or adjusted balances in Your Account(s) shall be charged in accordance with Pershing Advisor Solutions' practice with interest at a rate permitted by the laws of the State of New York. It is understood that, unless paid, the interest charge made to Your Account(s) at the close of a charge period will be added to the opening balance for the next charge period.

Margin requirements may be established and changed by Pershing or Pershing Advisor Solutions in its sole discretion and judgment without notice to you. In making this determination, Pershing or Pershing Advisor Solutions may take into account various factors including but not limited to (i) issues as to your securities such as, among others, the liquidity of a position and concentrations of securities in an account, (ii) considerations as to your status, including but not limited to a decline in creditworthiness, (iii) the size of the account, (iv) the general condition of the market, (v) considerations as to the ability of Pershing to obtain financing, and (vi) regulatory interpretations or guidance.

You agree to contact Pershing Advisor Solutions for the latest information on margin requirements. Pershing Advisor Solutions may exchange credit information about you with others. You are hereby notified that any negative credit report reflected on your credit record with Pershing Advisor Solutions may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations. Pershing Advisor Solutions or Pershing may request a credit report on you and, upon request, Pershing Advisor Solutions will state the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished it. If Pershing Advisor Solutions extends, updates, or renews your credit, either Pershing Advisor Solutions or Pershing may request a new credit report without telling you.

C. Option Transactions. If at any time you shall enter into any transaction for the purchase or resale of option contracts, you agree to abide by the rules of any national securities association, registered securities exchange, or clearing organization applicable to the trading of option contracts. Also, you agree that you will not violate the position or exercise limitation rules of any such association or exchange or the Options Clearing Corporation or other clearing organization.

D. Loan Consent. You acknowledge that securities not fully paid for may be loaned to Pershing Advisor Solutions, Pershing or loaned out to others, and as permitted by law, certain securities in the account, may be used for, among other things, settling short sales and lending the securities for short sales, and as a result Pershing and Pershing Advisor Solutions may receive compensation in connection therewith. Pershing Advisor Solutions and Pershing do not lend fully-paid-for securities without your written permission. Fully-paid-for securities held in a cash account (unless otherwise agreed in a separate written agreement) and fully-paid-for securities held in a margin account in which there is no debit balance are not loaned.

E. Shareholder Vote of Loaned Securities. In the event your securities have been loaned by Pershing on the record date of a shareholder vote involving those securities, you agree that the borrower and not you have the right to vote these securities. You understand that your vote may be reduced to reflect the total amount of your securities loaned by Pershing.
